

COLLECTIVE PHRONESIS?

AN INVESTIGATION OF COLLECTIVE JUDGEMENT AND PROFESSIONAL KNOWLEDGE

SYMPOSIUM 28-29 MARCH 2019

Centre for Studies in Practical Knowledge, Södertörn University, Sweden

THURSDAY 28 MARCH

Room: MA 624

15:00 Introduction:

Eva Schwarz & Jonna Lappalainen

15:30-16:30 Norbert Ricken

Coffee 15 minutes

16:45-17.15 Anna-Mia Bergkvist

17:30 End

FRIDAY 29 MARCH

Room: MB 503

09:00-10:00 Silke Schicktanz

10:10-10:30 Mani Shutzberg

Coffee 15 minutes

10:45-11:15 Bengt Bergman

11:15-11:45 Inger Eriksson

11:45-12:15 Panel Discussion

12:30 Lunch

SPEAKERS:

Bengt Bergman, Swedish Police Authority

"Negotiating (not inheriting) collective knowledge in Swedish police force."

Anna-Mia Bergkvist, Centre for Studies in Practical knowledge, Södertörn University

"Collective activities? Teachers' opportunities and resistance, in reforms and practice."

Inger Eriksson, Department of Humanities and Social Sciences Education, Stockholm University & Stockholm Teaching & Learning Studies

"A research environment for teacher driven research - some demands and possibilities."

Jonna Lappalainen, Centre for Studies in Practical knowledge, Södertörn University

Norbert Ricken, Department for Philosophy and Education, University of Bochum, Germany

"Concepts of sociality – and their relevance for a theory of pedagogical professionalism"

Mani Shutzberg, Centre for Studies in Practical knowledge, Södertörn University

"Symptoms and/or cause of a shattered profession? Infrapolitical resistance among doctors."

Eva Schwarz, Centre for Studies in Practical knowledge, Södertörn University

Silke Schicktanz, Department of Medical Ethics and History of Medicine, University of Göttingen, Germany

"Collectivity in Health Care: The Ethics of Social Groups and their Practical Relevance."

Contact:

Mani Shutzberg, mani.shutzberg@sh.se

Anna-Mia Bergkvist, annamia.bergkvist@sh.se

SÖDERTÖRN UNIVERSITY | STOCKHOLM